All Home Meets in BOLD
Dr. Carl Everts
Head Coach

Dr. Carl Everts begins his 36th season as the Concordia University head golf coach (men’s and women’s). Coach Everts retired in July 1994 as Concordia’s athletic director and chair of the Health and Physical Education Division, but continues to coach golf.

A 1953 graduate of Concordia, Everts received his master’s degree in 1958 from the University of Michigan and his doctorate in 1968 from the University of Texas-Austin. Everts served as athletic director, division chair and coach at Concordia University in Austin, Texas, before returning to Seward in 1969. Coach Everts is enjoying his “retirement” with his wife, Helen.

Trish Croghan / Mark Croghan
Assistant Coaches

Trish (Hearther) Croghan, a 1988 graduate of Concordia, will continue as the women’s assistant golf coach for the 2005-06 school year - primarily during the spring season.

Due to job demands, she will be helped by her husband, Mark. Both are excellent golfers, as well as excellent golf instructors. They reside in Seward.

Season Outlook
Bigger Roster Should Bolster Team

If the Concordia University, Nebraska women’s golf team has one thing going for them already in the 2006 season it is numbers. Head Coach Dr. Carl Everts opens the fall season with 10 golfers on his roster, double what he had in 2005. The Bulldogs also have experience as six players from last year’s squad are back, including four letterwinners.

Sophomore Natalie Swanda, last season’s most valuable player, looks to lead the way. She finished with the best average on the team last season as a freshman. Also back is junior Corrie Johnson who had the second best season average during the 2005 campaign. Anna Hill, a senior that was in the mix last year should also contribute. After making improvements last year she will server as the team captain this season. Also returning is Chelsey Bartels, a dual sport athlete, who was consistently the Bulldogs number five golfer.

Five new players joining the squad this fall and based on high school performances Jenni Schulteis is the most likely to challenge the returning players for a top spot on the team. Others that will challenge for a spot in the top five include Chelsea Karmann and Meghann Pinter who both played on their respective high school teams.

With the addition of the incoming freshmen and a year of experience for the returning golfers the Bulldogs look to improve after a disappointing last place finish at the GPAC Championships last year.

“We should have a nice blend of new and returning players,” Everts said. “It would appear that the team will be considerably stronger than last season. It will still be difficult to challenge the other GPAC teams, but we look to improve on last season’s performance.”

The season kicks off on Sept. 1 at the Red Raider Invite in Orange City, Iowa, at 1:00 p.m. The Concordia Invite is scheduled for Saturday Oct. 7 at the Seward Country Club. Golfers are slated to tee off at 10:00 a.m. The GPAC Championship meet is being hosted by Dana College and will be held in Blair, Neb.
